

A Quadriplegic's Journey through Africa

A lecture with film and photographs

Kindly sponsored by:

Colin Javens speaks to BBC correspondent Frank Gardner about the personal challenges of using just a small movement in his arms to become the first quadriplegic to drive from the UK to Cape Town.

Date: Wednesday 13th September

Time: 7.30pm (There is a cash bar available before and after the event)

Location: Royal Geographical Society, 1 Kensington Gore, London SW7 2AR

In aid of The Colin Javens Spinal Injury Trust (UK charity 1107143)

Tickets £10. Please send cheque (payable to The Colin Javens Spinal Injury Trust) and SAE to Caroline Orange, Unit 8a, Bramley Business Centre, Station Road, Bramley, Guildford GU5 0AZ

Tel: +44 (0) 1483 898 840 email: caroline@drivinghome.co.uk web: www.drivinghome.co.uk